11 Injured in Quad-Cities Include Four Boys Running on Bikes

Despite a record third day of July holiday toll nationally of over 530 highway fatalities, the Quad-City area escaped without a traffic death.

Only 24 auto accidents were recorded here by city and state officers during the long weekend. Traffic injuries totaled 11, including eight injury mishaps and one crash in which three persons were hurt.

Four young boys, two running on two bicycles, collided with a car.

Three persons were hurt in a head-on crash on the Venice Boulevard viaduct at the State Street exit, about 40 p.m. Sunday when the eastbound auto of Marion Sayers, 28, St. Louis, went around the left side of a car stopped to make a left turn onto State street.

Witnesses told police Sayers' auto crossed the center line and crashed into a west-bound auto.

Two occupants of the westbound auto, Miss Wanda Lee Hampton, 27, St. Louis, and Wendell Singleton, 38, of Arnold, Mo., were hospitalized here with multiple cuts to their faces, arms and legs.

Miss Hampton, who also had a neck injury, was transferred to a St. Louis hospital. Sayers was given treatment here for chest injuries and a nose bleed.

An estimated 25,000 persons jammed Wilson park in Granite City and the junior high school grounds in Madison last night to watch fireworks displays that climaxed Fourth of July observances for the Quad-City area. Approximately 20,000 persons were massed in the Wilson park area, while an estimated 5000 persons watched the display at Madison.

The fireworks display concluded long picnic programs in both communities. The Granite City program got under way last Thursday with a program of ball games, since the observance this year included the playing of the 17th annual softball tournament and Intercity League Games. The Granite City display started at 9 p.m. and that at Madison began at 10 p.m.

Two McPhersons Found Dead in Wrecked Plane

Four-Day Search for Father, Son Ends in Calhoun County Ravine

A four-day air, water and land search for Jerry McPherson, 30, of Granite City, and his 56-year-old father, Oscar McPherson, of Alton, ended about 3:30 p.m. Sunday when they were found dead in the wreckage of a light plane in a densely wooded ravine in Calhoun county.

McPherson, a loan department assistant cashier at Granite City Trust & Savings Bank, had flown to Rolla, Mo., to discuss airplane loans at the airport there and had asked his father to accompany him.

The last message from McPherson was received at the Lambert Airport tower about 2 p.m. Wednesday when he said he was changing his course west of Washington, Mo., to avoid a storm. He was enroute to the Alton airport where the plane was based.

A number of persons participated in the search over the four-day period. The Civil Air Patrol with five planes searched the area, as did the Missouri National Guard, U. S. Coast Guard vessels and volunteers on the ground.

On Saturday the searching began in earnest in Illinois in the vicinity of Pere Marquette state park and the Illinois River in the vicinity of Grafton. The two McPhersons had clubbed near the Batchtown "Hunter's Hide-away" area and were well-known and well-liked there.

The father was on leave of absence from Olin Industries Inc., where he was chief of security and was suffering from a heart ailment. He recently had been hospitalized and was recuperating at home when he was invited by his son to go on the trip.

The young McPherson, father of four small children, was a licensed pilot and frequently flew the bank's plane, a 210 Cessna, on business trips. He was active in flying circles in the area.

Air searchers were aware that finding the brown and green plane would be difficult from the air, but it was impossible to cover the 30-mile radius on foot. Detectives and fishermen in the Illinois area were charged by Jersey county authorities along with residents of the area, and a number of persons recalled seeing a light plane Wednesday afternoon.

Farmer Recalls Buzzing Plane

It was on Saturday that Mark Tepen, who operates a 27-acre farm about 14 miles southwest of Hardin, recalled that he had seen a "buzz" plane flying with the engine racing. He recalled that it was foggy that day. Tepen mentioned the plane, a part-time service station attendant, who related the incident to several persons buying gas.

A decision was made Sunday to search the Tepen farm, and it was after church that about 25 volunteers began roaming the countryside. Search planes were flying low overhead, and the ground search party was

Chemical Workers, Union Starch Meet On Strike Issues

Representatives of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union and officials of Union Starch and Refining Co. are meeting today at the Granite City Army Depot in an attempt to end the strike of about 410 union members that started at 11 p.m. Sunday.

The strike began after two meetings Saturday morning and afternoon and another Sunday morning. The company, which is owned by U.S. Steel, has a contract signed last Aug. 24 which left three issues open to further negotiations—wages, arbitration and shift realignment.

Arrangements to conduct today's meeting at the Army depot were made by U.S. Steel. The company has been participating in negotiation sessions for the past two weeks. A conciliation agent is participating in today's meeting.

A 72-hour strike notice was served on the company at 11 p.m. Thursday, a few hours after a closed union meeting in the Labor Union hall.

Issues Under Negotiations

Union officials called Thursday night's ratification session to act upon a counter proposal offered by the company covering the three issues involved—wages, arbitration and shift realignment. The issues had been left open to further negotiate in the current union contract which was signed Aug. 24. The current contract was for three years.

On Saturday the searching began in earnest in Illinois in the vicinity of Pere Marquette state park and the Illinois River in the vicinity of Grafton. The two McPhersons had clubbed near the Batchtown "Hunter's Hide-away" area and were well-known and well-liked there.

New Illinois Department of Revenue statistics show $79,276 returned to local municipal treasuries on the half-cent-a-dollar tax, including $24,992 for January, $24,549 for February and $29,734 for March. The March tally included the firms which file on a quarterly basis as well as those forwarding taxes monthly to Springfield.

Receipts during 1964, which ended with a record yearly total of $37,147, amounted to $22,424 in January, $22,213 in February and $27,762 in March, a first quarter figure of $72,600.

All four local municipalities are ahead of last year.

For the quarter, Granite City has received $85,792 (compared to $59,823 in January-March 1964), Madison $108,788 ($102,191), Venice $213 ($248,212) and the village of Pontoon Beach $91 ($73).

Never before have Granite City, Madison and Pontoon Beach netted so much from the sales tax in the first quarter of a year.

Venice received $2293 in the January, February and March 1965, $2802 in the first quarter of 1962, $2776 in the first three months of 1961, $3105 in 1960, $2795 in 1959, $2884 in 1958 and $3000 in the first quarter of 1957.

6 Quad-City Girl Scouts
Qualify at Pioneer Camp

Pioneer scouting, a new concept in Girl Scouting for the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, became a reality for 27 scouts, who returned Thursday from a two-week camping experience.

Six local area girls were included in the group which was formed into the first Pioneer Varsity Unit. Local scouts qualifying for memberships were Paula Walton, Cindy and Carol Wolfe, Lynn Fraley, Terry Reid and Becky Bailey.

Mrs. Jackie Spinks of Granite City was selected to serve as unit leader, assisted by Miss Mary Michaels, council field advisor.

Members of the new unit were chosen from applicants with experience in outdoor living and camping skills and ranged from 13 to 17 years in age. They represented Girl Scout troops in Edwardsville, Collinsville, Marine, Modoc, East St. Louis, Belleville and the Quad-Cities.

During the two week project, the scouts initially camped for three days at Chan-Yu Camp, an established Girl Scout camp near Prairieview, Ill. The remainder of the time was spent in tents at Lake Gillespie, near Gillespie, where they were initiated into sailing and rowing skills and advanced camp crafts.

The new unit plans to make similar trips through the summer months.

Hubbell Metal Sales
Up 30% in 5 Months

Hubbell Metals Inc. reports sales for the first five months of 1965 to be 30% greater than the same period in 1964. The report was made at the regular quarterly meeting of the board of directors, held recently at the firm's headquarters offices, St. Louis.

A second quarterly dividend of 45 cents per share was declared at the meeting. The firm has its operation here in the Granite City Industrial Center.

"Marketing projections corroborated by the first five months sales record indicate that an overall gain of 10%, or better, over 1964 should be realized by the end of 1965," Chairman of the Board, Howard H. Hubbell reported.

"Steel inventories have reached peak accumulations and within the next six months we can expect to see some excess stocks gradually reduced," he added.

Also reported was that all nine of Hubbell's metal service centers continue to operate profitably. This includes the firm's Wichita, Kan., operation which represents a recent acquisition.

The outlook for substantial gains in the revaluated Industrial Products Division was reported bright. This division markets such materials as stainless steel tubing and pipe, brass fittings and valves, aluminum rivets, lockwashers, terminals and nuts in the revaluated Industrial Products Division.

Sidewalk Cyclists Hits Girl, Breaks Her Leg

A small girl, who suffered a fractured leg when she was knocked down by a neighborhood youth riding his bicycle on the sidewalk, and two little sisters who shared an unknown quantity of baby aspirin were among those persons given emergency treatment Thursday at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Admitted for treatment was Tammy Cuppett, 2828 Edgewood drive, with two fractured bones in her left leg, suffered in the bike mishap. The youngster and her older sister were walking on the sidewalk near their home when the accident occurred.

Lynette, 24, and Cindy, 18 months, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Nicholas, 5216 Lakeview drive, underwent stomach surgery after they consumed a considerable number of baby aspirin. The medicine was kept in a closed cabinet, but was reached by the children when the older climbed a chair. Both were released.

Two other youths treated and released were Frank Stodnick, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stodnick, 2001 Richmond avenue, who incurred contusions and abrasions along his right eyebrow from the recoil of a new camera which he was shooting for the first time, and Billy Gene Sills, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy Sills, 1023 McCambridge avenue, Madison, who had six sutures taken to his left knee after he fell off his bicycle.

Certainty Vs. Uncertainty
 The great value of insurance is that, for a relatively small and certain sum of money, a family can protect itself against the possibility of a large and unpredictable loss.

Property insurance provides for reimbursement in the event of loss of or damage to property by certain named perils. Liability insurance affords protection for the legal responsibility of one's acts which result in injuries to other persons or damage to their property from accidents or other unforeseen events.

A family can protect against damage to its home and its household furnishings caused by fire and lightning as well as the resultant damage caused by smoke and water. This is achieved through fire insurance.

Extended Coverage
 For an additional premium, it can get "extended coverage" to insure against loss of damage from windstorm, hail, smoke, explosion, riot, vehicles and falling aircraft. This is provided in conjunction with the fire policy.

Other kinds of property insurance in connection with one's home and personal belongings include burglary and theft insurance and special "all risks" policies on valuable personal property, such as jewelry and furs.

A family can have separate inurance policies for these perils or, in most cases, it can purchase a package policy — called the "homeowner's policy" — to cover all of them.

COOKIE AND THE CAPTAIN, St. Louis TV personalities signing autographs at their annual appearance Sunday at the Wilson Park Fourth of July festivities. They distributed over 2500 pictures and by the end of their visit had autographed almost all of them.

The homeowner policy is one of several forms available to owner-occupants of one-family and two-family private residences.

50%-30%-50% Savings
 Its advantages are obvious. There is only one policy and only one premium. More important, by packaging a wide variety of perils in a single policy, insurance companies have been able to offer coverage at a reduced price — 50% to 30% less than separately purchased insurance.

Those who live on premises used for farming are ineligible for homeowner coverage unless the farming is only incidental to the occupancy of the dwelling and farming is not the occupation of the insured. Some states have farmowner policies resembling the homeowner policy.

The homeowner policy covers the dwelling, including quarters and such structures as garages and other additions that are in contact with the dwelling.

Appurtenant private structures are covered up to 10% of the amount of coverage on the house. Included here are guest houses, sheds and other structures used in connection with the home and located on its property.

Not covered are buildings used for commercial, manufacturing or farming purposes and those rented or leased to someone not residing in the family's home.

Personal property is covered along with the house under the homeowner policy. This includes household contents and other personal belongings owned, worn or carried by members of the family. The protection applies both at home and away from home; at the family's option, it can also include personal property of its guests while they are on the premises.

Pets Not Included
 Pets are not included under personal property. Also not covered are autos and the property of roomers or boarders who are not related to the family.

Certain limits are set on the amount of coverage on money, stamps, boats, jewelry and furs. To recover full value for loss or damage to these items, there must be coverage under separate policies.

The family is insured for additional living expenses when damage to the home requires it to live elsewhere.

For example, if a home is badly damaged by fire and the family moves to a hotel or motel while repairs are being made, the homeowner policy provides for the additional costs involved, up to the limit stated in the policy. Expenses must actually be incurred and are limited to the time it takes with due diligence and dispatch to repair the damaged property.

Little Added Cost
 Most people have their home covered against damage by fire and lightning. Some, however, do not have fire insurance on their household contents; nor do they realize that for a relatively small increase in cost they can have their property covered against a surprisingly large number of perils in addition to fire and lightning.

Construction Starts on GC Steel Basic Oxygen Furnaces

Construction has started at Granite City Steel Co. on a massive new steelmaking plant with two 220-ton basic oxygen furnaces. It was announced today.

The building housing the furnaces, materials handling equipment and other steelmaking facilities will cover 3 1/2 acres and the top will be 180 feet high, equivalent to a 14-story office building. It will be located immediately to the east of Granite City Steel's open hearth furnace shop which will be replaced by the new BOF plant.

Excavation work is under way and the first pilings to support the foundation will be driven into the ground this week. The BOF plant is scheduled to begin making steel in approximately 18 months. It will be able to produce at the rate of about one 220-ton "heat" per hour.

Nicholas P. Vedder, chairman of the board and president of Granite City Steel, pointed out that the company, largest steel producer in the Illinois-Missouri area, will be "one of the first steel companies in the U. S. to make all its steel in basic oxygen furnaces."

Tight Quality Control
 "This process is expected to result in significant savings in steel production costs and will allow us to exercise very tight control over the quality of the carbon steel we produce for our flat rolled steel products."

The BOF plant is being constructed by the Koppers Co., Inc. of Pittsburgh on a "turnkey" basis. The joint venture contractors for the excavation and concrete work are M. H. Wolfe & homeowner policy is the Broad Form, which insures against 19 perils.

Certain perils are not covered if they are caused initially by earthquake, landslide or other earth movements. Others are not covered if the loss is contributed by water, waves, tidal water or face water, waves, tidal water or face water, the backing-up of sewers or seepage.

Shrubs, trees, plants and lawn are not covered against windstorm and hail in the homeowner policy, but other property is covered.

Damage from perils other than fire and lightning often is subject to a deductible clause. For example, in a $150 loss with a $50 deductible clause, the insurance company would pay $100.

Flexible Options
 A family, of course, can insure its property for some but not all of the listed perils. Or it may purchase itself against additional perils. In either instance, there are policies to suit the needs.

The Standard Form insures against 11 perils: fire and lightning; loss or damage to property removed from premises damaged by fire; windstorm or hail; explosion; riot; riot attending a strike and civil commotion; aircraft; vehicles. If not owned or operated by an occupant of the premises; smoke or smudge from sudden, unusual or faulty operations of a cooking or heating unit; vandalism and malicious mischief; theft; and breaking of glass constituting a part of the building.

The Broad Form adds eight more perils to the coverage: falling objects; weight of ice, snow or sleet; collapse of building or any part of it; accidental discharge, leakage or overflow of water or steam from within a plumbing, heating or air-conditioning system; sudden and accidental tearing asunder, cracking, burning or bulging of a steam or hot water heating system; sudden and accidental tearing, cracking, etc., of appliances for heating water for domestic consumption; freezing of plumbing, heating and air-conditioning systems and domestic appliances; and sudden and accidental injury to electrical appliances, devices, fixtures and wiring (TV picture tube not included).

Cost of the Standard Form is less than that of the Broad Form, but the saving is relatively small.

Comprehensive Form
 For greater coverage than the Broad Form, the Comprehensive Form of the homeowner policy — also known as an "all risks" policy — usually covers all perils except earthquake, landslide, flood, surface water, waves, seepage, war and nuclear radiation.

There is no policy that protects against every possible peril.

Major difference is that the Comprehensive Form lists the perils that a family is not insured against; the other policies list the perils that it is insured against. The former names the exclusions; the latter names the perils.

If a family does not own its home but desires insurance on household contents and personal property, it can buy the Residence Contents Broad Form or Tenants Form. This protects furniture and personal belongings against loss or damage from the 19 perils.

Miss Elaine Smalley is Bride of Dudley Robertson

White gladioli and pom-pom necklines and the bell-shaped ribbons attached to the pews provided the setting Saturday afternoon at St. Joseph's Catholic Church for the wedding of Miss Elaine Smalley, 2039 Edison avenue, and Dudley C. Robertson, niece of the bride, junior maid.

The Rev. Thomas Sullivan heard the vows of the couple at 2 o'clock. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Joseph Smalley and the late Mr. Smalley. Mr. Robertson's parents are Mrs. Dudley P. Robertson and the late Mr. Robertson of Glen Carbon.

Given in marriage by her brother, James K. Abrams, the former Miss Smalley wore a white Swiss embroidered organza dress with a square, scalloped neckline and short sleeves.

Walter Ogle was his brother's best man, serving with Richard Barton, Galesburg, Gary Cohen, St. Louis, and Edward Coulson, Collinsville, groomsmen. John Sova, Belleville, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Robert Wagner, Collinsville, were ushers. Miss Vicki Goh, Collinsville, and Miss Laurie Schwartz of Albert Lea, Minn., lighted the candles.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bloomquist chose a dress of eggshell linen, shrimp accessories and a corsage of daisy, um orchids. The bridegroom's mother was in a pink lace dress and pink accessories. Her flowers were sweetest roses.

Lyons-Hartmann Nuptials At St. Paul's Church, Troy

An out-of-town wedding of interest locally was that Saturday at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Troy, of Miss Doris Marie Hartmann, a daughter of Mrs. Hilda Hartmann, Route One, Troy, and a former employee in the medical records office of St. Elizabeth Hospital, and Kenneth Lyons, also of Troy.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. A. Pedersen at 7:30 p.m. in a candlelight setting. A reception followed at the American Legion Hall in Troy.

Wedding music was furnished by Harold Schmitt, vocalist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Arthur Stahmer who played the wedding marches. The songs were "Perfect Love" and the Lord's Prayer.

The bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace of classic styling. The modeled bodice, fashioned with long tapering sleeves, pointed at the wrists, had a sari neckline scalloped and edged with iridescent sequins and seed pearl trim. A controlled skirt had a rose attached at the back of the waistline and cascading down the back were tiers of crystal tulle pleating and matching lace to form a cathedral train. A neckline veil bordered with lace was secured to a face crown and the bride carried a cascade of white roses encircling a white orchid and lilies of the valley.

She was given in marriage by an uncle, Louis Schaefer. Mrs. Nina Jean Grist, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Jo Ann Taake, the bridegroom's cousin, Miss Janet Buske and Miss Lela Werner, former classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids. Hundreds of Children Set for Jr. Olympics

Hundreds of youngsters will compete in the Granite City park district's annual "Junior Olympics" sports event at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday on the Wilson Park softball diamond.

Finalists were determined in runoffs held among second through sixth grade children in various age-group events held at the nine recreation centers throughout the city.

They will compete for first, second and third-place ribbons, with more than 220 to be awarded to the winners, according to Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, program coordinator.

A large number of parents and friends are expected to view the finals, which will be judged by the Granite City high school coaching staff.

Modeling after the international sport event, the "Junior Olympics" will feature many of its colorful trademarks.

Dwain Bridges, Granite City high school track star and the only local athlete to compete in the state track meet, has been selected to carry the torch to light the "Olympic flame."

Mrs. Bjorkman announced, flanked by Joe LeGrand, Robin Teague and Elvin Hoestra, members of the GCIS band and Girl Scout representatives will lead the pledge of allegiance and the national anthem to open the program.

Individual events will include hurdle and high jump, races, throwing, football kicking and novelty contests as sack races.

Contestants will represent Logan, Marshall, McKinley, Nienmeyer, Nankov, Webster and Wilson schools and the park district community center and Salvation Army center.

Sansone Tops Moydell 5-0 for Park Softball Title

Lowery Hurls 2-Hit Gem; MBC Ousted in Semifinal

A two-hitter by ace pitcher Charles "Dub" Lowery gave Sansone Concrete Co. a 5-0 victory over Moydell Funeral Home in last night's championship game of the Granite City park district Fourth of July fast-pitch softball tournament. Both teams are from St. Louis.

Moydell had advanced by topping the Granite City entry, Mathews-Blue Circle, 1-0 in the losers' bracket semifinal game yesterday afternoon. The five-day tournament was part of the Independence Day celebration at Wilson Park.

Sansone broke a scoreless tie in the fifth inning with three runs off workhorse Ed Larson of Moydell. A homer by Carl Brawley ended the deadlock and hits by Charles Backsopf and Wayne Ortmann contributed to two more runs before the inning ended.

The champs added two insurance runs in the seventh on five singles by Backsopf, Larry Vowell, Tom Kubat and Bob Baer and a double by Ortmann.

Meanwhile Lowery gave up two singles, struck out 10 and walked none. He pitched all four innings without a hit or a run.

A lead-off single by Dick Clift was Mathews-Blue Circle's only hit of Larson, who fanned three and walked three. Clift was down trying to steal later in the inning. Rich Graeff had three hits for Moydell.

A summary of other tournament action follows:

SCNDAY'S HIGHLIGHTS
The first of four Fourth of July contests found Moydell defeat Mathews-Blue Circle 1-0 in the losers' bracket. The St. Louis team rapped out 13 hits including three singles each by Al Rempel and pitcher Ed Larson. Larson allowed just three hits for Moydell.

Moydell eliminated Thurmer 5-1 with Bill Miller firing a four-hitter. A three-run homer in the third by Ed Meyer was the big blast for the winners.

Mathews-Blue Circle, the local hope, was a 3-0 loser to Sansone in the winners' semifinal game. Charles Lowery's four-hit, 12-strikeout pitching was too much for MBC. Ed Heck had two of the losers' hits and Happy Co. blasted a solo homer for Sansone.

Moydell topped Moydell 7-2 to qualify for the losers' semifinal game. MBC, Al Rempel's homer and a single and triple by John Sullivan paved the way.

SATURDAY'S HIGHLIGHTS
Sansone advanced to the semifinals by topping Thurmer 3-1 on a neat one-hitter by Charlie Lowery, who fanned 10 batters. Thurmer's only hit was by Floyd Jolley in the fifth when the team scored its only run—unearned.

The Sansones scored three runs in the second inning with Carl Brawley, Charles Backsopf and Wayne Ortmann getting the hits.

In the first game in the losers' bracket, Moydell blanked the St. Louis Businessmen 7-0 on a two-hitter by Ed Larson. Two singles and a triple by Ed Jolley and Gene Courissey's homer powered the victory.

FRIDAY'S HIGHLIGHTS
Mathews-Blue Circle qualified for the semi-finals with a 2-1 verdict over the Alt-Wood Merchants Friday night as Ralph

Legion in Second, Must Win Last Two
The pressure is on the Granite City American Legion Post 113 team. Monday's loss Friday in Alton have dropped the local teenagers into second place in the 2nd District Northern Zone race. They bounced back Saturday for a 3-0 victory over Collinsville at Wilson Park but are still a half game out of the zone championship. Alton's Post 126 is on top with a 9-2 record with one game remaining. Granite City is in a four-bagger with two games—Friday at Glen Carbon and next Tuesday against Johnsonville here—left on the schedule. Thus Post 113 must secure victories in both games to assure at least a tie for the zone championship. The Southern winner will meet the Northern champion in a playoff series to determine the district representative in the Fifth Division tournament. Larry Johns stymied the locals on three hits Friday, top by Larry Ripko and one by Larry Dill.

Venice Meets More Delay on Plan to Build Incinerator

An engineering report detailing operational aspects of a joint Venice-Madison incinerator for disposal of trash and garbage was received by the Venice city council Friday night, but any further discussion of the project was delayed pending inspection of the report by Venice city engineers.

Receipt of the report, which had been due May 1 and already has caused a two-month delay in the city's program to meet a state order to eliminate open dump burning, was announced by Dr. John E. Lee, mayor, who said the report contained no reference to costs of construction of any plant or specifications for any particular type of incinerator.

Mayor Lee told council members the city engineer will inspect the survey, made by the AAKCO Construction Co. of St. Louis, and will submit a report for the next city council meeting with a recommendation on whether the city should hire another engineer for a new and more complete survey. The AAKCO survey was delayed out of the city on a voluntary offer by the St. Louis firm.

The mayor said the report made no reference that a building to house the incinerator will be necessary. He added that the city has a Sept. 4 deadline to eliminate present conditions at the city-owned dump, and that it will be "impossible to have an incinerator built by then . . . we will be lucky if we can call it a building that time."

The only solution, he said, is to proceed as rapidly as possible with the incinerator project and to turn to a landfill in September on a lease basis.

Award Paint Contract

The council awarded a contract for painting approaches of McKinley bridge to George Tarbuk Co. of Madison, Pa., on its low bid of $93,435, on recommendation of Hardesty & Hand engineering firm, N. Y. which supervises bridge operations. The firm checked three bids received by the city.

Three bids on the painting job, each submitting three offers on different types of paint, were: Hartman & Walsh Co., St. Louis, $93,620; $96,357 and $94,998; George Tarbuk Co. of Madison, Pa., $93,435, $99,362 and $98,566; and Gus Handzick & Son, St. Louis, $284,056, $270,000 and $267,465.

The Tarbuk bid of $93,435 was accepted with use of Detroit Graphite paint. The work is to start within ten days after the contractor is notified and is to be completed in 65 days.

After a discussion of proposed traffic regulations, the council instructed City Atty. Harry Hartman to prepare an ordinance providing for stop signs at the following locations: at the intersection of Lincoln and Mercedia and Biswell streets for eastbound traffic; north and south traffic at Douglas and Douglas streets; on the southeast corner of Logan and Mercedia streets for northbound traffic; on the northeast corner of Logan and Mercedia streets and the north-west corner of Mercedia and Biswell streets for westbound traffic; at Klein and Brown streets for north and south traffic. The ordinance is to be presented at the next meeting of the council.

ITR Sued for $200,000 By Laborer in Yards

Victor M. Laird has filed suit for $200,000 and costs against the Illinois Terminal Railroad Co. in Madison county circuit court at Edwardsville.

He claims that on Jan. 29, 1964, while employed as a shop man in the Madison yards, he was ordered to dry sand in extremely hot conditions and then was sent outdoors in sub-zero weather to wash engines. Because of this, he developed a severe lung ailment, he said. He charged the railroad with failure to provide a reasonably safe place in which to work.

led by Mark Tepen's brother,
William, who lives on an adjoining farm.

The 25 volunteers started at 11 a.m. and the plane was found about 3 p.m. only a few hundred yards from a country road that was between the Tepen farm house and the wooded ravine. The deep, wooded ravine was only a quarter-mile from the Tepen farm, which is high in the hills above the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers.

Authorities said the plane first hit treetops about 25 to 30 feet away from the farm, and then fell to the ground. The wreckage was scattered over a 20-foot radius, but the main section of the plane was found in the ravine. The wreckage had been found in the ravine.

SOCIETY

Wuebbles-Giese Wedding

Mrs. Margaret Giese, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schultz sr. of Venice, and Ray Wuebbles of 2438 Cleveland blvd., whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wuebbles, reside in Aviston, Ill., were united in marriage early Saturday evening at the home of the bride, 2421a Benton street.

Pink roses, stephanotis and greenery formed a bower around the fireplace, which was adorned with pink satin ribbons and bows and lighted pink tapers in silver holders. Magistrate Merin Hiscott performed the five o'clock double-ring ceremony.

The bride chose a gown of petal pink floral chiffon over a gamsa, designed with a sweetheart neckline and elbow-length sleeves. Back interest was accented with a Watteau panel of chiffon, accented with a self-trimmed bow, which flowed to the hemline of the sheath skirt. Layers of pink tulle formed the bridal headpiece and she carried a lace fan arranged with pink elegance carnations and stephanotis, entwined with white satin ribbon and centered with a detachable corsage.

Mrs. Jeanette Ballard, the bride's daughter, was her only attendant. She selected two piece street-length frock of cranberry crepe fashioned with a red-velvet V neckline and a pink and cranberry flower pill box hat. Her accessories were in matching shades and her flowers were white and garnet gladioli.

The former Mrs. Giese was given in marriage by Jack Mott.

The bride's son-in-law, Donald Ballard of Granite City, served as best man for Mr. Wuebbles.

A reception and buffet-style dinner were held at the bride's home immediately following the ceremony. Miss Penny Ballard and Miss Mary Ann Koralansky presided at the guest book.

Presently, the couple is on a wedding trip to the Smoky mountains area. On their return they will reside at the Benton street address.

Mrs. Wuebbles is employed as a checker at Schenker Bros. Supermarket, Madison. Her husband is with a St. Louis motor freight firm.

Street Supt. Warfield Concerned Over Loss of Trees

Concern over the loss of more than 1000 trees in the past two years was expressed today by Granite City Street Supt. William Warfield, who is suggesting homeowners take the responsibility of replacing trees removed from between the sidewalks and curbs.

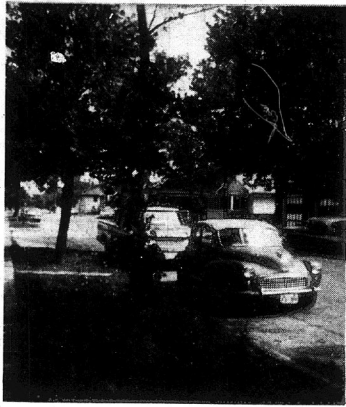

Warfield said he realizes the property belongs to the city, but that the city has no program of replacement.

He has mentioned the huge losses to individual aldermen, and several weeks ago, Seventh Ward Alderman R. E. Robertson called upon the council to investigate the cause and find a remedy for disease in elm trees. He suggested the state conservation department and experts of Northwestern Illinois University be called upon for assistance.

The street superintendent said most of the tree removals are the sycamores planted early in the turn of the century by the city. "But there also are a number of elms and recently a honey worm got into a maple and killed it in three days," Warfield said.

"Persons wanting to take on the job of replacing trees in front of their homes have these suggestions from Supt. Warfield: "Pin oaks are the best, and other good ones are Gum trees and hard maples. All are shapely and pretty trees."

Warfield said in the past year his tree cutting crews removed slightly over 300 trees of which 90% were dead. Most of the

Farm Advisor Gives Hints on Care Of New Trees

"Whether or not the young shade tree you planted last fall or this spring is still alive at the end of summer will depend largely upon the care you give it, according to Truman May, Madison county farm advisor."

Until it fully recovers from the shock of transplanting and is actually established in its new location, the tree needs a great deal more attention than will be required later.

"Water is an absolute necessity to a newly-planted tree." How often you should water depends, of course, upon rainfall and the type of soil in which the tree is growing. We had quite a dry spell in May and unless this summer is different, we can expect hotter and perhaps drier weather for the next 2 or 3 months. In most parts of the area, home gardeners will find it necessary to soak new plantings every 7 to 10 days," May said.

"To make sure you are applying enough water, check the conditions of the soil in the root zone. You can do this with an earth auger, a slender metal or wooden rod, or by digging down carefully with an ordinary spade. "Newly-planted trees are usually braced against wind sway by means of stakes and rubber hose or guy wires. Examine these bracing frequently and make repairs as needed. The bracing should be firm, but not so tight that it puts a strain on the trunk. Make sure that the hose sections encircling the trunk are not rubbing or cutting into the bark."

"After a new shade tree has been set out, the trunk is often sprayed to protect it from borers. Local garden stores and nurseries have DDT and other insecticides that can be painted or sprayed on the trunk bark for this purpose. "Generally the trunk of a transplanted tree is wrapped with commercial tree wrapping paper or burlap to prevent sun-scald. Check the wrapping occasionally for broken the strings or tears in the paper. "Some die-back of branches can be expected during the first growing season."

Prune this dying wood back to live, green tissue, making the cut just above a lateral twig. Prune all sprout growth that develops at the base of the trunk."

Gavlick Assumes Duties As Lions' President

Walter Gavlick, newly-installed president of the Madison Lions Club, conducted his initial meeting Thursday evening at the Sportsmen's Club, Tenth and Washington streets, Madison. Twenty-six members were present for the weekly dinner meeting.

Gavlick gave a brief talk in which he urged members to cooperate in achieving a 100% attendance goal in the coming year. Final reports were presented by the club's financial committee and routine business was transacted for the remainder of the meeting.

IMPRESSED BY WARMTH, FRIENDLINESS OF AREA

To the Editor:

This is from a happy member of this community.

During the past two years, the Morgan family has been privileged to live in the Granite City area. Being a military family, we have lived in many different communities in the 16 years of our married life. Granite City is the best of all.

We have been especially impressed by the warmth and friendliness of the people who live in this area. Many acts of kindness, service and friendship have come our way.

It has been made many lifelong friends in this community, and we will never forget them or the community they represent.

It saddens us to leave this community for a new assignment, but we are also grateful for the many friends we have made here. It is impossible for us to say an adequate goodbye to them all. We would be most appreciative if you could publish a letter, or a summary of it, in the Press-Record so that the good people of Granite City might know that they have made an other soldier and his family happy.

ACTIONS CAN LEAD OTHERS TO RELIGIOUS FAITH

To the Editor:

Not all Christians can teach Sunday school classes, or pray in public or talk to sinners.

But sometimes what we may do, or what we may say, by telephone or in a letter, would lead someone to the Lord.

It is the little things that do and say that mean so much. Just those simple little things could point the right way for someone.

THE PASTOR SPEAKS

REV. GEORGE H. D. READERS
First Church of the Nazarenes

In John 6:35, Jesus said, "I am the Bread of Life; he that cometh to Me shall never hunger, and he that believeth on Me shall never thirst."

Jesus repeatedly used the common things of life to convey spiritual truth. Here He said, "I am the Bread of Life."

Across the millenniums men have sought for something to satisfy their deep soul hunger and thirst, but they have sought in vain. The soul cannot be satisfied by material and earthly things; the soul craves for God.

Heavenly Manna. Jesus said, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God." Food and water will satisfy physical hunger and thirst, but it takes heavenly manna to satisfy the soul.

Christ is the true Manna, The Living Word which came down from heaven. He gave Himself for the life of the world. Only

He, the Creator, can satisfy the soul which he created with a capacity for Himself.

Of physical bread we can buy, or we can make bread by a number of bakers according to various recipes, but of spiritual bread there is only one—Jesus Christ. He is the "true Bread" which came down from heaven to bring life to the world.

Nourishment of Soul. So completely does He satisfy the soul that those who find Him look no farther for something to satisfy. He completely satisfies the deepest soul hunger. He brings life, spiritual life, divine life to the soul.

He that cometh to Him and abides in Him shall never hunger nor thirst. The present sense, "cometh" and "believeth," are used, signifying a continuing process.

He that comes and continues to believe, and he that believes and continues to believe, shall continually be satisfied with His nourishment and life for both time and eternity.

The Case For VA Hospital Closing

By Sen. Paul H. Douglas

I want to share with you one type of problem which a senator faces. It is the problem of the Veterans Administration Hospital. I hope you much you will write to me to give your opinion on the action I have taken.

Until the end of World War II veterans hospitals had a somewhat poor reputation.

But, under Gen. Bradley and a great medical staff, the Veterans Administration Hospital at Magnolia, a major effort was made to improve the VA hospitals.

Their program had two features:

1. The old hospitals and old buildings were to be replaced with new hospitals and new buildings.

2. Whenever possible, these were to be built next to or in association with medical schools, that the veterans would get the best possible medical care.

The Veterans Administration, however, was limited by law in the total number of beds it could provide. As a result, when new beds were added or new hospitals built, old hospitals or buildings had to be phased out to keep within the total number of beds allowed.

Illinois Benefits. Illinois has benefited more from this program than does any other state.

It has about 6% of the U. S. population but has received about 10% of the funds for new VA hospital construction. A total of $121 million in construction money has been authorized for Illinois since 1953.

Included are about $19 million each for Chicago West Side Hospital, Chicago South Side Hospital, and Danville Hospital.

New beds have numbered 1220 at Hines, 881 at Downey, 760 at South Side, 720 at Danville, 548 at West Side, 516 at Chicago West Side, and 40 at Chicago.

Participating medical schools include the University of Illinois, Chicago Medical School, Northwestern University, Loyola University, and the University of Chicago.

Most of these new beds have replaced old beds so that the total number of beds available in the state has remained almost the same.

One-Third Increase. However, the number of patients treated in 1953 with 744 beds was 32,374. In the fiscal year, with 7431 beds, some 42,442 patients will be treated.

Thus, by replacing old beds with new beds, one-third more patients can be treated, and with the facilities and staff associated with medical schools, the treatment will be improved by getting specialists and crack doctors to serve.

The veterans, therefore, are certainly better off under this program than they were before.

Dwight One of Oldest. But, as the new beds and hospitals are built, the old ones must be phased out.

Redistricting Failure But Much

Constructive State Legislation

Lack of redistricting stands out as the major setback for the public in the 1965 session of the Illinois General Assembly. Other "minuses" and a large number of "pluses" are apparent in reviewing the six-month session, which experienced the usual frantic voting and bargaining period in the closing days.

There is still some hope of legislative reapportionment being achieved by a commission, courts or a special Assembly session, and every effort should be exerted in this direction. It would be tragic if a "bedsheet ballot" had to be used again for the Illinois House and also for the State Senate and Congress. Yet this is the prospect unless Democrats and Republicans compromise their differences on boundary lines and population for legislative reapportionment.

Spending and taxation loomed large in the deliberations at Springfield. Gov. Kerner estimates that $252 million was added to the previous budget with $145 million new income provided, a difference of $107 million. Republican Senate leaders figure the potential deficit is much less, and cite the possibility of economies. It remains to be decided whether programs will be trimmed or a special session called to raise revenue. Signing or vetoing of various legislation in the coming weeks will aid in determining monetary needs for the biennium. A state school aid increase is expected to become law.

Although cigarette smokers, utilities, leasing firms and race tracks will pay more, Quad-City taxpayers fared better than expected. State and city sales tax rates and motor fuel taxes were left unchanged, and a $5,800,000 non-referendum levee bond program was approved.

Local residents will join with other Illinois voters next year in deciding whether to approve a "blue ballot" proposal for a flat 3% tax on gross income, rising to 6% with later referendum approval; classification of personal property for tax purposes; a ban on real estate classification; a direct sales tax rather than the retailers' occupation tax, with food and drug taxes possibly abolished; abolition of much of the current personal property tax if an income tax is adopted within four years; and rebate of 1% of the income tax to local governments.

Legislators failed to enact levee district reforms, to tighten lobbying regulations or to create a legislative ethics board.

But they passed anti-crime bills, launched a study of conflicts of interest, began an investigation of bribery allegations, approved a master plan for higher education, eliminated interstate highway tolls, voted to require junkyards to be screened from view and authorized foreign doctors to serve in hospital emergency rooms, to name only a few of the hundreds of bills.

It will be weeks and perhaps months before the full impact of the 74th General Assembly can be assessed. But the gains, at least numerically speaking, appear to outweigh the losses.

Did you ever stop to think how bad the situation might be if everybody agreed with you about everything?

785,000 per year. Frankly, I felt that much of the outcry against the VA program was based on a misunderstanding of the more to do with the loss of payroll for the community than because of the cost of the VA program.

This was true even though the VA program had a major target in its "cleanup" campaign by closing down Thursday afternoon operations at the Madison County Zoning Board.

The action was taken by Jack Clifford, director of the county zoning board, after conditions at the refuse site were inspected by Supervisor Joseph Trocicki and Howard Kaseberg, chairman of the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals.

The Madison County area was scattered with refuse and trash, although landfill operations are permitted in the area only if refuse is buried under and covered with dirt at the end of each day. Trocicki charged that this decision, "have received the Madison County landfill operation and that it was created an unsightly condition to persons entering the area."

Given To State

Through the President's office and the Veterans Administration, the VA has agreed to a plan for the VA to give the Dwight Hospital to the state of Illinois. The VA has agreed to transfer medical facilities for the veterans and a savings of $15 million to the federal taxpayers, there were other benefits, namely:

1. Several hundred non-tenured children now in long waiting lists will get treatment.

2. The state of Illinois will save $15 million by taking over this hospital instead of building a new one.

3. Most of the VA employees at Dwight can move to the state hospital at salaries comparable with their existing salaries.

County Now Authorized To Create Deputy Merit System

Now that a deputy sheriff merit system law has been adopted and signed at Springfield, applying to 13 downstate counties exceeding 100,000 population, members of the Madison County Board of Supervisors may want to give early consideration to the proposal.

If the county sees fit to do so, it can place deputy positions on a career basis, much like the present operation of city police departments.

Efficient performance of duty would still be necessary, and the provision of a degree of job security could attract men who are not now interested because of the prospect of losing their employment within four years or less. Current deputies serve at the whim of the sheriff, who is barred by law from serving consecutive terms.

Chief advantage to the public would be the retention of career officers whose added experience could make them better able with each passing year to enforce the law in unincorporated areas of Madison county.

Madison, Venice Facing Deadline

On Operation Of Municipal Dumps

With Granite City having already taken steps to comply with a state ban on open burning of trash, it is encouraging to note that Madison and Venice officials are actively seeking ways to curb air pollution at their municipal dumping grounds.

As they have pointed out, the Sept. 4 deadline may be hard to meet. But the potential penalties are so severe—any county found guilty of eliminating the nuisance is so great—that they will want to comply as rapidly as possible, either through establishment of an incinerator or other means.

Along with helping rid the Quad-Cities of part of the smoke problem, such progress also can provide a side benefit—a much more attractive initial view of this community as travelers approach from the south.

Economy—a way of spending money without getting any fun out of it.

Child Abuse Law Deserves

Full Public Cooperation

Excessive punishment of children by their parents—usually due to ignorance of the amount of time and attention owed to, and demanded by, youngsters—is one of the cruelest but, unfortunately, not one of the rarest of crimes in the Quad-Cities and Illinois.

Judging by the number of toes killed and crippled by beatings and other extreme "corrective" measures, authorities know the problem is widespread. Undoubtedly, other cases go unreported and untreated, and many selfish and immature adults unpenalized.

A new state law aimed at reducing child abuse is currently being implemented through distribution of explanatory literature and advisory full cooperation from doctors, school staffs, hospital administrators, welfare agencies, law enforcement officials and others who become aware of specific instances. Doctors and hospitals are required by the law to report suspected cases to the State Department of Children and Family Services.

Parents are important to their offspring and have many rights, including authority to spank and discipline. They do not have the right to ignore or wantonly neglect a child, and violators ought to be punished.

National Leadership By Quad-Cities

Although a complete list might be difficult to compile, the Quad-Cities have contributed their share of state, regional, national and international leadership to a wide assortment of organizations and causes.

Latest case in point is Miss Mary Haasler, who is concluding a one-year term as national president of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. Her service has reflected credit on this community as well as furthering the valuable philanthropic work of the organization.

County EOC Seeks

$75,600 Grant of Federal Tax Funds

The Madison County Economic Opportunity Commission has applied for a $75,600 federal tax grant to develop a county-wide anti-poverty program. Application for the project development grant was made to the Office of Economic Opportunity in Chicago and will be used to finance the program for a six-month period. George E. Moore, Jr., of Granite City, president of the county commission, said if the grant is approved in Washington, the commission will provide supplementary services equivalent of $8400, or 10% of the program's total cost. He added that office space has been offered the commission in the Edwardsville Labor Temple. The commission expects to receive the grant request in about two weeks.

The federal government, for the first two years, finances 90% of the anti-poverty projects. The individual area is required to furnish 10% in funds or services.

About 30 on staff.

With the approval of the application, the commission is to hire a director, a professional planner, three neighborhood employees, a secretary and four clerk-typists. With the exception of the director and planner, many of the remaining jobs will be offered to persons from the poverty ranks in the area. Joseph T. Kelleher Jr. of Edwardsville, a member of the executive committee, said the commission expects it would cost approximately $87,500 in salaries for an office staff. The remainder of the grant would be used for consultant's services, travel and consumable supplies. He added "it will cost us about $5000 in salary for the director and professional planner (trained social workers)."

The office staff, for the six-month period, would undertake studies and studies of four other areas. Moore explained, to determine where and what type of projects would be of greatest benefit.

The county commission, which was officially organized June 9, was required to file for planning funds before July 1, the federal government's first year deadline on anti-poverty appropriations.

Tri-City Group Seeks $10,500

Two other groups in Madison county also filed last week for appropriations under the same program. They include the recently-chartered Tri-Cities Economic Opportunity Council, which requested a project development grant of $40,500 and a similar group in Alton, which is seeking a $5,000 grant.

Roland Lewis of Venice, chairman of the Tri-Cities EOC, said the money requested in the grant would be used to hire an director, deputy director and four other workers and for office supplies.

Total cost of developing a local anti-poverty program during the nine-month planning period, Lewis estimates at $45,000. The remaining funds represented in donated space and services. He said the Newport Junior Chamber of Commerce has donated office space at 100 Weaver Street for the staff.

He added that Daniel Smith, a YMCA staff member, has offered to serve as a consultant and Richard Allen, an attorney, has volunteered legal services. Dr. Albert Kuenzli, a psychologist at Southern Illinois University, also offered his services on a consultant basis, Lewis said.

YAWNING EXCAVATIONS, with enough dirt removed to build an ordinary backyard swimming pool two miles long, extend along the east side of Madison avenue where Granite City Steel Co. is building its new computer hot strip mill. The picture was taken from the steam generating plant at 19th street looking south. The excavation in the foreground is for the motor room, and along Madison avenue is the concrete foundation already poured for the slab storage building. The 1900-foot long hot strip mill will be located to the left of the motor room excavation and will extend from 16th street to the water cooling pond that is north of 19th street. At the 16th street end of the site, the slab furnaces will be built. Excavating work, which has not yet started on the hot strip mill building, now is 50% completed. Beyond 16th street are the new locker room buildings for steel mill employees.

Budget Again Tonight for GC Council Members

The budget is expected to be tonight's major issue before Granite City council members.

The 6 o'clock session is being held this evening under the council's usual practice to meet on a Tuesday if a regular meeting date falls on a holiday.

Last week, the council jumped the tentative total from $1,710,940 to $1,896,620—still under last year's budget figure of $1,925,714—but did not include any pay adjustments for the city's 117, or possibly 120, employees. The new budget as it now stands will provide for hiring three additional firemen. No report has yet been made on wage boost negotiations.

Other changes in the budget are anticipated. Hanging fire is a decision on whether $12,000 will be a sufficient amount for school crossing guards hired by the city. Consideration is being given to including additional funds for uniforms.

The largest new item in the budget is $60,000 added last week for a new fire station in the Nameoki area. The city replaced the West Granite station during the past fiscal year and has been considering replacement of the Nameoki road station or building an additional station because of the wide-spread growth of the area.

File Petitions For Grand Jury Hearing In Barnes Murder

Petitions bearing nearly 200 names, many of them from the Quad-City area, were filed in Edwardsville Friday with Chief Judge Harold Clark of the Third Judicial District, urging him to order an immediate grand jury investigation into the murder more than three years ago of Billy G. Barnes, a telephone operator.

The petitions were filed by Robert Niehaus, formerly of Granite City but now of Troy, who was arrested shortly after the murder and charged with being an accessory before the fact on May 5, 1962. Later Paul of Granite City was charged with murder and remained in a common jail in Edwardsville.

Niehaus has maintained his innocence and has attempted to obtain a hearing in an effort to clear his name. After three years, both men still are charged and remain on $10,000 bonds. In circulating the petitions, Niehaus said he is requesting that the grand jury hear the evidence for the charges or that the charges be dropped.

Meanwhile, State's Atty. Joseph Bartak said at Edwardsville that he feels the case is sufficient evidence to present the case to a grand jury. He said he had conferred with principal prosecutors, and that he intends to review all facts in the murder case and in the light of whatever additional evidence might have been produced by the sheriff's office.

He did not intend to handle this case any differently from any other case, regardless of any pressures and publicity, he said.

'No' to Levee Commission as Well as Tax Plan

Analysis of the newly-enacted legislative session shows consistently negative action on the East Side Levee and Sanitary district.

Not only did a $3,802,000 bond issue proposal and a group of revenue bills fail to pass; proposed extension of the life of the Commission on Sanitary District Operations also failed. This was the commission which conducted hearings in Granite City and East St. Louis this spring, prompting legislation designed to curb alleged abuses, including lack of competitive bidding. The bills which the commission prepared could be introduced again in 1967.

With its unannounced, last-minute effort to circumvent the legislative session, the committee failed through referral to an Illinois Senate committee, the levee board may discuss new approaches to handle drainage and other proposed projects during a monthly meeting at 10 a.m. in the future.

Quad-City taxpayers survived the 1965 General Assembly session, but they also saved their pocketbooks that anticipated.

Border Areas Fared Well
In addition to the levee bond plan, which would have boosted local property taxes, the legislature left unchanged the 4% sales tax (3% for state and 1% for cities or counties). And the gasoline tax remained at 10¢ per gallon. The Senate leaders who had sought an eight-cent rate rejecting a six-cent effort.

Both the sales tax and motor fuel tax levels are of particular concern in border areas such as the Quad-Cities, where a disparity with neighboring states could create a commercial edge.

A complicated tax proposal will be outlined on one of two "hot" propositions to be voted on statewide in 1966. The other would end the current ban on sheriffs and county treasurers succeeding themselves in office.

Constitutional Change
Basically, the tax ballot would broaden the Illinois Constitution to give the legislature much more latitude in the type of taxes it could impose and in the type of use it could make available to local-level governmental agencies.

The Revenue Article revision would permit the legislature to levy a flat-rate 3% income tax and classify long-term intangible personal property at 1%.

The income tax could go as high as 6%, subject to authorization by referendum. Classification of real estate property would be sanctioned in Missouri, which has no income tax. Illinois, such classification already in practice without authorization in that country, involves a graduated rate of 1% to 3% in higher brackets than homes for assessment purposes.

Constitutional revision would permit intangible personal property, such as stocks and bonds, to be put in different classes than furniture and autos, which form the bulk of currently-taxed personal property. The revision could end taxes in any one of four currently-taxed personal property classes.

There could be a direct sales tax on gross receipts, instead of existing taxes on occupations and services, with food and medicine exemptions permitted.

And another provision would allow school districts to double their bonding power, from 5% to 10%, if personal property taxes were levied. Such taxes would have to be abolished if an income tax was placed in effect within the next four years. Offsetting this would be a 1% rebate—one-third of the 3% income tax—to local governments.

Revenue amendments to the 1848-1870 constitution were submitted to voters previously in 1916, 1926, 1930, 1942, 1952 and 1956, losing each time.

For approval, there would need to be a majority vote by all participating in the general election or support by two-thirds of those voting on the amendment.

Tax changes which were approved by the General Assembly in 1965 to take effect immediately raised the cigarette tax from four to seven cents a package, estimated to yield $84 million during the next two years; raised the public utility tax from 3% to 4%, $38 million; levied a tax on equipment leasing, $13 million; raised the horse and harness racing taxes, $10 million.

Farm Committeemen Voting July 13-23

Farmers are getting a last-minute reminder about important elections which will be conducted by mailed ballots this week.

The elections are to choose the ASC farmer-committeemen who will serve for the next year as national administrators of national farm action programs.

According to Walter F. Barndmeier, chairman, Madison County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, these ASC committeemen have important responsibilities, which make it urgent that representative farmmen be elected to the job.

Programs administered by the committeemen include the agricultural conservation program, farm income stabilization, marketing quotas, commodity loans, the feed grain program, the voluntary acreage program, the National wool program, and farm storage facility loans. Other duties include the election of the committees by the Secretary of Agriculture as the need arises.

Explaining the election procedure, the chairman said that each year qualified voters—farmers who are eligible to vote in one or more of the farm programs which the committeemen administer—elect a community committee of five to seven members. The chairman, vice-chairman, and regular member of the committee also are delegates to a county convention, where the ASC county committee is elected.

In Madison county, eligible voters will mail or deliver their ballots for community committee election to the county office by July 23. Ballots will be mailed to all farmers July 13. Anyone who fails to receive a ballot believes they are eligible to vote, should contact the county office.

Chairman Barndmeier urged all qualified voters to be sure to vote. He said that the county vote or hold office as a committeemen is not restricted by reason of race, color, creed or national origin.

YMCA Plans Trip To Ft. Chartres, Community Swim

Two activities will highlight the YMCA youth program this week in the way of extra-curricular events. As a part of the summer schedule of field trips, the third will be made tomorrow to historical Fort Chartres.

The fortress, 60 miles south-east of the Quad-Cities, once state capital of Illinois, will be the scene for exploration and picnic for the children who go. The bus will leave the YMCA at 11:30 a.m. and will return about 5:30 p.m.

Anyone desiring to go may call the YMCA, TR 6-7200. Cost will be $50 per child and each should carry a sack lunch, according to David Welker of the youth department.

The second item on the special events schedule will be the second in a series of community recreation swims. This program, which gives the children from different areas of the Quad-Cities a ride to and from the YMCA pool and an hour swim, will be for Madison boys ages 8 to 14 for 35 cents. The bus will leave from the Madison Junior high at 4:30 p.m. Thursday and will return at 6:30 p.m. Future community swims will be offered to children from neighborhoods of Granite City, Mitchell and Glen Carbon.

Break at County Jail Averted by Sheriff, Jailers

Plans for a jail break at the Madison county jail were uncovered Thursday evening by Sheriff Barney Fraundorf and members of his staff.

Sheriff Fraundorf said nine back saw blades had been concealed in a tube of tooth paste and in hair oil which relatives had delivered to one of the prisoners.

He said he was unable to disclose the name of the prisoner responsible, but said information would be presented to the state's attorney for possible future action.

Fraundorf said one of the prisoners had sent a pair of shoes to a relative for repairs and had hidden a note asking for the material under the insole of a shoe. The note contained necessary instructions for concealing the blades.

Opening for Gun
Several prisoners also had managed to work an opening in a window area in which a gun could be placed, the sheriff said, and a break might have been made with the use of a gun when a night jailer moves the prisoners to their quarters from the main cell block at 10:30 p.m.

He said that the jail on Friday contained 27 prisoners, including murderers, burglars, armed robbers, prostitutes and others. Two of the prisoners from the Granite City area already have been convicted of murder and are awaiting sentencing. Murder trials for two others are pending.

Sheriff Fraundorf said security at the jail has been tightened considerably, and that anyone going in and out of the jail, the exchange of goods between prisoners and their relatives, has been eliminated. He noted that this is detrimental to prisoners who behave themselves and to relatives who attempt to be helpful.

Wire mesh in the jail which had been loosened for a gun has been repaired, the sheriff said, and the prisoners now are being shifted from one cell block to another to try to prevent the start of escape plots.

The sheriff predicted that under current conditions, someone is going to be hurt or killed in the 100-year-old jail, and that his jailers are in danger when they are near the prisoners. Grand juries and other groups have been critical of the building and have called for a new, modern structure.

GC Optimist Club Holds Chicken Picnic at Park

Granite City Optimist Club members held a fried chicken luncheon in the Wilson Park pavilion Thursday afternoon, where they entertained as guests, Milton Worthen, vice-president of the Granite City park board, and Paul Schuler, board member.

The 26 persons present for the outdoor session were welcomed by newly-installed president, Edward R. Stone, who conducted his initial meeting.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, supervisor of the GC park district's summer recreation program, who described the various activities provided at nine recreation centers located throughout the community.

Mrs. Bjorkman announced that 1040 youngsters are registered in the 1965 summer program, with an average daily attendance of 2465 for both the morning and afternoon sessions.

Sports to Field Trips
Activities, she reported, range from athletic contests, games, movies, arts and crafts, swimming and storytelling to field trips to the St. Louis Zoo, Grant's Farm or the state capital.

She added that each week the 26 persons present for the outdoor session are featured at each playground center, such as pet shows, bike rodeos, scavenger hunts or marble tournaments. Apart from the special excursions, the supervisors pointed out, no charge is made to children residing in the park district who participate in the program.

In conclusion, Mrs. Bjorkman introduced several young leaders who are responsible for operating the various centers.

Next week, the club will resume its regular meetings at the YMCA. An executive session is scheduled for July 12 when plans and programs for the coming year will be discussed.

Charges of fighting and peace disturbance were filed against three men arrested Saturday morning on Main street in Venice. Police were alerted by a toll collector for McKinley bridge about 10:30 a.m., who said there was a fight inside a tavern.

When police arrived the trio was outside shoving each other around. The bartender for Hollywood tavern, 800 Main street, said the fight had started inside.

Arrested were Ronald Cornstubble, 27, of Washington Park; Donald Humphrey, 30, of 2035 Sixth street, Madison; and Lawrence W. Frazier, 22, of 1545 Collinsville avenue, Madison.

Humphrey told police he had slept in his auto parked at the rear of the 718 club on Main street and when he awakened discovered that checks for $2 and $72 were missing from his wallet. Hearings for the trio were set for July 14.

Two men, one charged with unlawful use of a weapon face hearings next week after being arrested Saturday night outside the Evergreen tavern, 2318 Nanticoke road. Police said they saw a gun fall from the waistband of Danny Papp, 24, of 38 Kaseberg Park as he was being ejected from the tavern. He also was charged with creating a disturbance.

The loaded revolver was confiscated by police after it fell to the ground. Papp also was charged with creating a disturbance, and charges placed against Colin Hahne, 23, of 1523 Lindell blvd. were intoxication, creating a disturbance and resisting arrest. Papp told officers the gun belonged to Hahne and that he was carrying it for Hahne.

Papp was released on $3000 property bond for a hearing next Monday, and Hahne was freed on $250 cash bail for a hearing July 15.
